
Government Leaders

We have a representative democratic government. This means that the people in a community choose government leaders. Government leaders act and speak for us in making rules and laws.

