
Rights of Citizens

Rights are freedoms that every person has. Rights include the privilege to believe, say, and make decisions as an individual in your community, state, or country.

Citizens of the United States have the right to “life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.” As an American, you have the right to live. You have the freedom to think, speak, and make decisions. You have the freedom to do the things that make you happy.

Voting

When we vote, we are given choices. We decide which choice is best for us. We vote to make our choice. The choice with the most votes is picked. We may not agree with the final choice. We should support what the group decides.
