

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sequencing Chart

Use the sequencing chart below to list steps or events in chronological order.

The sequencing chart consists of six rows. Each row is designed for a student to write a step or event in chronological order. The rows are separated by large, solid black downward-pointing arrows on the left side, which serve as visual cues for the sequence. Each row's writing area is a rounded rectangular box.