The screenshot shows the Studies Weekly Online interface. At the top, the navigation bar includes 'PUBLICATIONS' (highlighted with a red circle 1), 'CLASSES', 'PD TRAINING', and 'EXTRAS'. Below the navigation bar, the 'Science' category is selected (highlighted with a red circle 2). The main content area displays a grid of four curriculum samples, each with an 'ALL NEW!' banner and a grade level label: Kindergarten, First Grade, Second Grade, and Third Grade.

1. In Studies Weekly Online, choose the Publications tab to see Science curriculum samples. Select a grade level and week to see more.

The screenshot shows the Studies Weekly Online interface. The 'CLASSES' tab is selected. The 'Manage Students' sub-tab is active, showing a list of students for 'Grade 4 (Grade 4) 2020-2021'. The list has columns for 'First Name', 'Last Name', 'Username', 'Password', and 'Actions'. One student, Peter Pepper, is listed with the username PPepper20202021 and a masked password.

Use the Classes tab to see how teachers can manage classes, students, and parent accounts.

The screenshot shows a video player interface for a video titled "Types of Maps". The video player includes a progress bar at 0:00 / 0:23, a volume icon, a share icon with a .75 count, and buttons for "Watch Video" and "Bonus Sources". Below the video player is a text block explaining different types of maps: physical maps showing mountains and water, political maps showing boundaries, and theme maps showing special things like population density. Three map images are shown: a world physical map, a US political map, and a Florida theme map. Navigation buttons for "Prev" (Cardinal and Intermediate Directions) and "Next" (Map Coordinates) are visible. Below the video player is a list of six resource categories, each with a numbered icon and a right-pointing arrow:

- 1 Lesson Plan
- 2 Content Videos
