

Civics Correlations

submitted to the Florida Department of Education

Grade K

Integrated K-12 Civic Education Curriculum

5021020 Social Studies Grade K, Florida Studies Weekly: My Home and School Community, K-5

If category does not apply to materials please mark "N/A"

Requirement	Requirement has been met? Yes/No	Evidence of this requirement (link to materials, chapter or page number)
House Bill 5 required the Florida Department of Education to develop or approve an integrated civic education curriculum which is expressed in Rule 6A-1.09411, F.A.C., "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum." Instructional materials must provide guidance to educators on integrating the content of the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	This section is intended to identify if the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	Indicate where the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12. It may be in one section or spread throughout the materials.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	We include English Language Arts standards in our Teacher Edition both in print and online, under the guidance for each week. For example, this link leads to the Kindergarten Teacher Edition under week 8 where we provide guidance for implementing the reading in a Language Arts block.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	Custom, ELD lessons for each week are included under Supplemental Resources online. From the Index of any grade level, find Resources listed underneath the list of Weeks. Select Resources to see ELD Lesson plans for each week of content.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for Math.	Studies Weekly provides math lessons that target specific Math standards related to K-12 Civics Education and can be found directly following the week of related social studies content. For example, A supplemental lesson can be found directly following Florida Studies Weekly: My Home and School Community Week 5: Government.

Grade 1

Integrated K-12 Civic Education Curriculum

5021030 Social Studies Grade 1, Florida Studies Weekly: My Place in Time and Space, K-5
If category does not apply to materials please mark "N/A"
Requirement	Requirement has been met? Yes/No	Evidence of this requirement (link to materials, chapter or page number)
House Bill 5 required the Florida Department of Education to develop or approve an integrated civic education curriculum which is expressed in Rule 6A-1.09411, F.A.C., "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum." Instructional materials must provide guidance to educators on integrating the content of the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	This section is intended to identify if the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	Indicate where the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12. It may be in one section or spread throughout the materials.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	We include English Language Arts standards in our Teacher Edition both in print and online, under the guidance for each week. For example, this link leads to the First Grade Teacher Edition under Week 13 where we provide guidance for implementing the reading in a Language Arts block.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	Custom, ELD lessons for each week are included under Supplemental Resources online. From the Index of any grade level, find Resources listed underneath the list of Weeks. Select Resources to see ELD Lesson plans for each week of content.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for Math.	Studies Weekly provides math lessons that target specific Math standards related to K-12 Civics Education and can be found directly following the week of related social studies content.

Grade 2

Integrated K-12 Civic Education Curriculum

5021040, Social Studies Grade 2, Florida Studies Weekly: The World Around Me, K-5
If category does not apply to materials please mark "N/A"
Requirement	Requirement has been met? Yes/No	Evidence of this requirement (link to materials, chapter or page number)
House Bill 5 required the Florida Department of Education to develop or approve an integrated civic education curriculum which is expressed in Rule 6A-1.09411, F.A.C., "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum." Instructional materials must provide guidance to educators on integrating the content of the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	This section is intended to identify if the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	Indicate where the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12. It may be in one section or spread throughout the materials.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	We include English Language Arts standards in our Teacher Edition both in print and online, under the guidance for each week. For example, this link leads to the Second Grade Teacher Edition under Week 15 where we provide guidance for implementing the reading in a Language Arts block.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	Custom, ELD lessons for each week are included under Supplemental Resources online. From the Index of any grade level, find Resources listed underneath the list of Weeks. Select Resources to see ELD Lesson plans for each week of content.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for Math.	Studies Weekly provides math lessons that target specific Math standards related to K-12 Civics Education and can be found directly following the week of related social studies content.

Grade 3

Integrated K-12 Civic Education Curriculum

5021050 - Social Studies Grade 3, Florida Studies Weekly: My Community, My State, K-5
If category does not apply to materials please mark "N/A"
Requirement	Requirement has been met? Yes/No	Evidence of this requirement (link to materials, chapter or page number)
House Bill 5 required the Florida Department of Education to develop or approve an integrated civic education curriculum which is expressed in Rule 6A-1.09411, F.A.C., "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum." Instructional materials must provide guidance to educators on integrating the content of the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	This section is intended to identify if the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	Indicate where the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12. It may be in one section or spread throughout the materials.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	We include English Language Arts standards in our Teacher Edition both in print and online, under the guidance for each week. For example, this link leads to the Third Grade Teacher Edition under Week 26 where we provide guidance for implementing the reading in a Language Arts block.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	Custom, ELD lessons for each week are included under Supplemental Resources online. From the Index of any grade level, find Resources listed underneath the list of Weeks. Select Resources to see ELD Lesson plans for each week of content.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for Math.	Studies Weekly provides math lessons that target specific Math standards related to K-12 Civics Education and can be found directly following the week of related social studies content.

Grade 4

Integrated K-12 Civic Education Curriculum

5021060 - Social Studies Grade 4, Florida Studies Weekly: Our Changing State, K-5
If category does not apply to materials please mark "N/A"
Requirement	Requirement has been met? Yes/No	Evidence of this requirement (link to materials, chapter or page number)
House Bill 5 required the Florida Department of Education to develop or approve an integrated civic education curriculum which is expressed in Rule 6A-1.09411, F.A.C., "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum." Instructional materials must provide guidance to educators on integrating the content of the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	This section is intended to identify if the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	Indicate where the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12. It may be in one section or spread throughout the materials.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	We include English Language Arts standards in our Teacher Edition both in print and online, under the guidance for each week. For example, this link leads to the Fourth Grade Teacher Edition under Week 27 where we provide guidance for implementing the reading in a Language Arts block.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	Custom, ELD lessons for each week are included under Supplemental Resources online. From the Index of any grade level, find Resources listed underneath the list of Weeks. Select Resources to see ELD Lesson plans for each week of content.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for Math.	Studies Weekly provides math lessons that target specific Math standards related to K-12 Civics Education and can be found directly following the week of related social studies content.

Grade 5

Integrated K-12 Civic Education Curriculum

5021070 - Social Studies Grade 5, Florida Studies Weekly: Our State, Our Nation, K-5

If category does not apply to materials please mark "N/A"

Requirement	Requirement has been met? Yes/No	Evidence of this requirement (link to materials, chapter or page number)
House Bill 5 required the Florida Department of Education to develop or approve an integrated civic education curriculum which is expressed in Rule 6A-1.09411, F.A.C., "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum." Instructional materials must provide guidance to educators on integrating the content of the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	This section is intended to identify if the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12.	Indicate where the instructional material provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across all other subject areas as part of regular school work in kindergarten through Grade 12. It may be in one section or spread throughout the materials.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	We include English Language Arts standards in our Teacher Edition both in print and online, under the guidance for each week. For example, this link leads to the Fifth Grade Teacher Edition under Week 17 where we provide guidance for implementing the reading in a Language Arts block.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for English Language Arts.	Custom, ELD lessons for each week are included under Supplemental Resources online. From the Index of any grade level, find Resources listed underneath the list of Weeks. Select Resources to see ELD Lesson plans for each week of content.
	Yes, Studies Weekly provides guidance to educators on how to integrate the "K-12 Civic Education Curriculum" across other subject areas. In specific, we provide guidance for Math.	Studies Weekly provides math lessons that target specific Math standards related to K-12 Civics Education and can be found directly following the week of related social studies content.